OFFICEOF THE LATTING OBSERVATORY ASSOCIATION OF Broadway, May 28 1825.—Important to artists.—The Board of Directors of the Latting Observatory Association would hereby give notice to artists and painters that they have resolved to appropriate a gallery in the observatory building to the exclusive use of artists, for the exhibition of paintings, and other works of art, free of charge for ront. Artists will at once perceive the great advantage offered them by this arrangement, by bringing their works before the immense crowds that will always wist the Observatory, thereby not only founding a "free" gallery of art, but enabling them to readily find purchasers for works of merit. Communications in reference to this subject must be sent in at once, addressed to the Directory of the Latting Observatory Association, 167 Broadway, (office of the New York Health Insurance Company.) By order, D. SICKELS, Secretary.

TO THE MERCHANTS AND SHIP OWNERS OF NEW Verk.—Gentlemen, as the difficulty as precent existing between the riggers of the city of New York and their bosses is fraught with injury to your best interests, we doem it but right to represent the facts, that the un'air and unmanly influence exercised by some bosses to prejudice your minds, may be removed. In no other branch of trade in this city is one shillisp per day deducted from the hard earned compensation of the journeyman; but upon the custom of New York we alone are subject to its exaction. This we are determined to resent, or through you, receive an equivalent. We are aware of the force of misreprosentation, an article plentifully supplied you by some "boss" riggers during our strike, and therefore would respectfully warn you to guard against it. Classification of the riggers has been suggested. It is but a ruse to rob you. Admitting that some men are incompetent to the performance of all the duties of a rigger, and his wage established at fourteen shillings per day, what guarantee have you that the fourteen shillings per day, what guarantee have you that the fourteen shillings per day, what the procedent, for the unplayer to dissolve a contraction of the difference of the first class, or seventeen shillings per day men? And is it not con patible with all precedent, for the unplayer to dissolve a contraction of the gird of the first class, or seventeen shillings per day men? And is it not con patible with the precedent, for the unplayer to dissolve a contraction of the gird of the first class, or seventeen shillings per day and all times infinitely more hanged on the calling is not worth $2 per day net? daty of rigzing a vessel (at any and all times infinitely more hazardous than any other calling) is not worth $2 per day net? Do caulkers, shipearponters, joiners, or sailmakers serve you more faithfully than we? Are they rofused any reasonable advance when they demand it? It their calling "extra hazardous" that a "higher premium" is sought, any peculiarly in the "risk" that should justify an additional drait of the circulating medium? No! gentlemen, we believe in your seure of right, of your sympathies for the condition not only of ourselves but of all industrial clauses, and we are well resured that nothing but chloanery on the particular of the said of the content of the particular of the said of the said of the particular of the said of the s
